

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. How much does it cost to become a member of the Rebus Club of Hibiscus Coast?

A. $25 per annum.

Q. Are there any other charges?

A. A one-off joining fee of $20.

Q. How do I apply to become a member?

A. A membership application form is available on the "CONTACT" page of this website. It usually requires a nominator and seconder. If you are not known to any Club member, you will be advised as to how to meet this requirement.

Q. How many Rebus Clubs are there in NZ?

A. Fifty spread primarily throughout the North Island with three in the South Island.

Q. How often does the Club meet and must I attend all meetings?

A. We meet monthly and whilst regular attendance is encouraged, it is not obligatory.

Q. How long do meetings last?

A. We meet in the morning between 9.30 and midday.

Q. Will I be obliged to speak at meetings?

A. Generally a Club member gives a short 10-15min talk about themselves or some interesting event in their lives. Participation is not obligatory, but warmly encouraged.

Q. Will I be required to publicly fund-raise for worthy causes as occurs in many other Clubs such as Rotary, Lions etc?

A. No. External fundraising is expressly prohibited by Our Constitution.

Q. Can I see a copy of a Club's Constitution and By-laws?

A. Yes on this web site.

Q. If I join the Club, and have a partner, can he or she attend Club meetings?

A. No. However we have several activities during the year to which partners are welcome, such as mid-winter or Christmas luncheon and outings.

Q. Will I have to join a committee?

A. We always welcome new members, especially if they are willing to serve on a committee in the future. Again, the decision if invited to become a committee member, will be yours alone.

Q. Are there any travel insurance arrangements for members of Rebus Clubs?

A. Yes, specialised cover for our age group is available on-line. See "Travel Insurance" on the link to "Rebus NZ" on our "CONTACT" page.
